Our technology infrastructure allows us to cover a vast sea of information critical to forming insight and investment decisions on a superior scale.

How we invest

Drawing on diverse datasets, we apply advanced analytics such as machine learning to extract insights and trends. Our portfolio managers overlay qualitative research techniques before they are included in the investment model. Backtesting ensures insights make sense both intuitively and quantitatively. This combination of qualitative and quantitative analysis leads to differentiated returns.

Identify high quality

We focus on companies generating high-quality revenues with sustainable business models and aligned management incentives.

Unearth trends

Global markets are increasingly driven by themes and trends. We use alternative data sources as our lens into trends impacting companies that other investors may not be seeing.

Find unrealised value

Our analysis helps us identify fundamentally undervalued companies. We believe that buying high-quality businesses at a fair price leads to strong long-term performance.

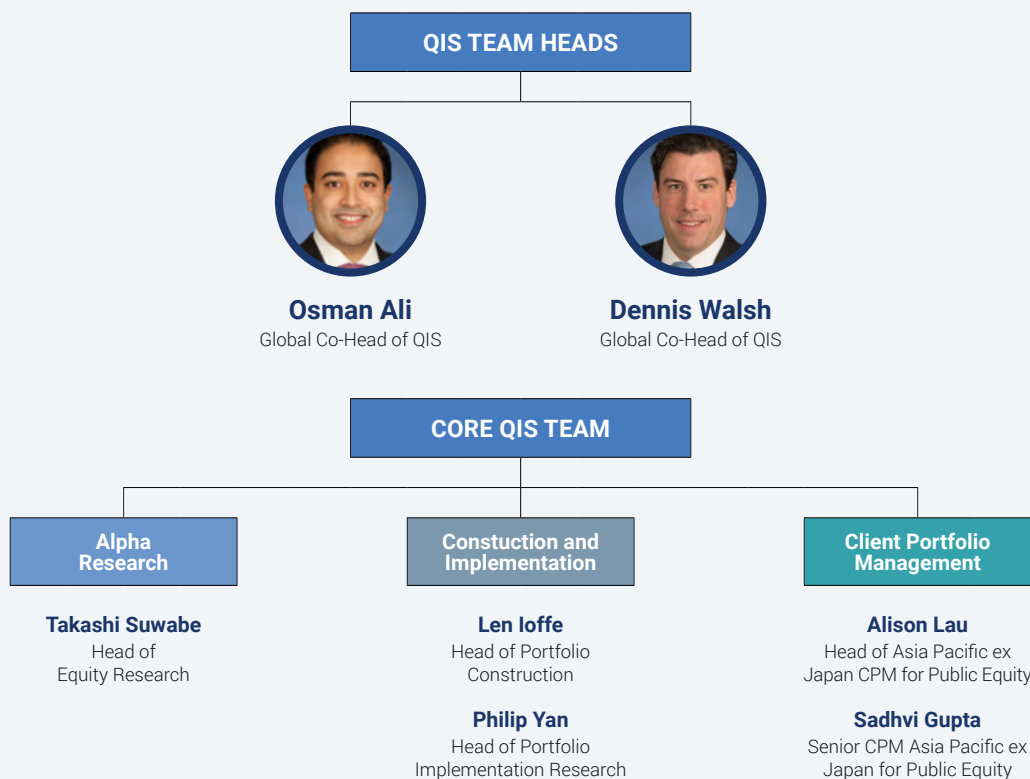

Leverage global insight

We recognise that other market participants can provide valuable information to supplement our own analysis. Exploring broader market sentiment helps us gain insight into future performance.

Goldman Sachs Asset Management

The experienced QIS team of around 200 investment professionals provides world-leading capabilities in research, portfolio construction and implementation, client portfolio management, trading, engineering, stewardship and ESG.
